From:

Happy Capybara was playing with the MacGuffin in a field outside Carcassonne beside a tree.

Oh no! Where is the MacGuffin? Capybara can't find their friend! What will Capybara do?

Capybara decided to go to visit Detective Wallaby in the city of Siena for help finding the MacGuffin.

Detective Wallaby said that they should get help from Communist Cat, so they all met in a beautiful bar and made a plan to find the MacGuffin.

The next day, Capybara, Detective Wallaby and Communist Cat all travelled by rickshaw through Glasgow in search of the MacGuffin.

Suddenly they have an idea. They travel to Havana to meet wise Father Christmas.

"You see", said Father Christmas, "the MacGuffin was helping me to deliver all these e-scooters to the children."

All together now!
Tous en choeur maintenant!
Unt jetzt alle zusammen!

Happy friends!
